SILAS WRIGHT'S OPINION OF LEWIS CASS.

[illegible] Silas Wright [illegible] County, New York [illegible] 1847.

[illegible] Gen Taylor, [illegible] the [illegible] Democracy, he proceeds [illegible]

I know nothing of his tastes and qualifications for civil administration. Some brave and successful soldiers have those qualifications in perfection, and some have not a single one of them—but in civil situations are wholly destitute of moral firmness. Our friend General Cass is one of them—a good soldier in his day, but afraid of his own shadow in a civil office and a perfect time-server and demagogue."

A Word to Workingmen.

There are issues of deep and abiding interest involved in the Presidential election which is soon to take place, [illegible] the welfare of the workingmen of [our] land. Labor is your reliance—by its gains you expect to live, to maintain and educate your families, and out of these gains you hope to establish [illegible] the chills of old age. You may, in the quiet of your daily pursuits find little desire to mingle in political discussions or take an active part [illegible]. But you should remember that although you may fall into a state of indifference [illegible] have nothing to do with politics, that politics will have something to do with you. Unless you give your influence in favor of the policy of affording encouragement to home labor you will find that this labor in all branches will be interfered with by the introduction of foreign manufactures and your business become less and less prosperous.

The Whig party insists upon the policy which shall encourage our own people in drawing upon their own skill and resources for all the essential articles required for their support and for bringing together side by side, the producer and the consumer that they may supply each others wants with the least waste of labor and with the least expense of transportation, receiving thereby the largest amount of the surplus earnings of each as their own profits. In this way labor can be best diversified and all the varied talents of our people and capacities of soil, and the natural resources of our country be brought into activity and made to contribute their aid to the welfare of the people. The policy of the Whigs is essentially in favor of labor, and of making our country the best of all countries on the face of the globe for its industrious citizens.

The Loco party scouts the idea of protecting American labor but goes for opening to the widest extent the doors of foreign competition and thus of keeping down American wages and the quality of American productions.

The Whig policy says that the American Market should be secured to the American workman at fair producing prices. Is not this reasonable and right? Is not the only system by which the workingmen of the United States find the position circumstances and prospects better than do the workingmen of foreign countries? Certainly.

The Loco policy disregards entirely these conditions and says that if foreign capitalists who own the factories and who grind down the wages of their operators to the lowest point at which they can live can be induced to bring into the American market their surplus productions, after supplying their own markets let them and if our people wont work as cheap let them idle and starve.

The Loco party is ruled by men in office who have money salaries and if they can buy what they want cheap, that is all they care for. Their pay is secure and they get as much when productions are low and other wages down as when these are high and [illegible] more of what they must purchase.

The Whig policy is really the true policy for working men. Upon this view of the subject it becomes every man who is dependent upon the results of his labor for a living and a competence to apply himself at once to politics and to the election of Zachary Taylor for President.

Our country is now suffering a decline in business on account of the operation of the loco system of free trade. Business will decline still lower and wages run down unless there is a change in the legislation of the country. See to it, then workingmen, that you be not deceived by party names, nor by free trade theories.

The bloated capitalist and the well paid office holder, may be benefitted by having the prices of labor run down to the lowest point. But the interest of the great laboring multitude—the immense majority of our people—almost the entire body of our young men is found in maintaining the price of labor for all hope for what they can earn over what they consume.

Workingmen ponder upon this matter and give your vote for the welfare of your country and for the true American system, by voting for Zachary Taylor.

The Seventh of November.

This day which is to determine the course of the government for a series of years, and settle the question whether we shall go on with the extension of slavery, and in feverish haste to interfere in the regulations of the world and become ambitious of acquiring territory and wasteful of blood and of treasure for these objects, or whether slavery shall be prohibited from further extension, and the government exercise its functions at home and labor to develope the resources we possess, and to make our country all that it is capable of being; this day, so full of these great issues, is close upon us. Are the friends of Zachary Taylor, and good government really aware how near the time is when they throughout the length and breadth of the land will be called upon to deposit their votes upon which all these issues hang? Whatever is done in the way of preparation, must be done quickly. A few more rising suns and the day will have arrived, a few hurrying hours, and the tale will have been told.

If Gen Taylor shall be chosen as the ruler of this people, he will bring to the discharge of his high duties, a clear head, and an honest heart, and a [illegible] to administer the government for the good of the people, and not for the success of party.

If Gen Cass shall succeed, then will the country be doomed to be governed for party alone. Every valuable interest will quiver under the [illegible] in the scales and the blighting influence of impracticable theories will be felt by all classes of the community.

Let every voter ponder upon the value of his vote.

Taylor Meeting.

The friends of Zachary Taylor held a large and highly interesting meeting at the Court House on Wednesday evening. Wm Lane Esq., was called to the chair.

Col John L. P. Dumont, of Hallowell, was introduced to the meeting and delivered a speech of great beauty and effect upon the political measures and men of the times. The Colonel was particularly happy in his theme and spoke with his usual fluency and zeal when in the advocacy of Whig principles. His remarks received hearty applause and his happy hits and unique illustrations gave great zest to his address.

Hon Elisha H Allen followed in a speech of uncommon beauty and force. His voice has often been heard in times past by the Whigs of Bangor, but in this effort he greatly exceeded himself.

At the close of the meeting, three cheers were given for Col. Dumont and Kennebec three for Hon. Elisha H Allen and the Whigs of Boston, and three for Zachary Taylor.

It was one of the most gratifying public meetings that has been held here during the campaign, and trust its effect will be seen in the impetus which it will give to the Whigs in their labors in the cause.

The Judiciary.

The people are deeply interested in the character and conduct of their Judiciary, and will always feel that after all our political strifes and struggles, a pure, independent and able bench is of vastly more importance, than the ordinary matters of political difference. We are happy to see that Judge Tenney has been reappointed because he is known as an able, upright and popular judge, and although a Whig, has a large share of the confidence and respect of the whole community as to induce our Executive to retain him in office. Of Mr Howard the new judge, we know here in the East but little, but report speaks favorably of him as a man of talents, legal acquirements, and good temper, (the latter no small qualification, by the way.) We think the new Court will be satisfactory to the people and will discharge their arduous responsible, and difficult duties, with ability, impartiality and unwearying industry.

Chief Justice Ezekiel Whitman, now retires from public life at the age of seventy-two, after a long and faithful service.

Judge Whitman has passed his life, since manhood, in Maine, and has at all times, stood strong in the confidence of the people, as an honest, able and fearless man, in public and private life. He is a noble specimen of one of the few remaining with us, of the sound, dignified, and true men of a former age. He retires to private life, after a service in the Judiciary department of nearly thirty years, and he carries with him the respect and the confidence of the whole community. We feel that the State has lost much in his retirement, for it has lost a Judge, who to learning and sagacity and clear apprehension, united,—an independence, and a fearlessness, and an indifference to temporary popularity, beyond any other man we ever knew. He is a man,

"Who would not flatter Neptune for his trident
Or Jove for his power to thunder."

During his long judicial life, no man ever for an instant doubted his integrity, his entire independence and his sincere desire to do justice, without fear or favor. He has doubtless erred as other men, but never through the fear or favor of any man or any men, however powerful or popular.

We have for the future, lost his services—We trust that his example will not be lost, but remain to incite all who may succeed him in the high seats of power.

☞ Mr Lane has reduced the price of admittance to his Panorama of the Hudson river on exhibition at Market Hall this evening and to-morrow afternoon. On Wednesday afternoon he exhibited the Panorama to a large number of the children of our city and on Saturday the number will probably be greatly increased.

Concert This Evening.

☞ At the request of several families, the Moravians will give two more of their unique performances at the City Hall. They deserve a full house.

☞ We resume to day the publication from the Kennebec Journal of the admirable letter addressed to Free Soil men of Maine. This is one of the most able documents of the campaign and should be attentively read by every Free Soil Whig in the State.

The Warrenton (Wis.) Chronicle says there is not a Cass man to be found in the towns of Fox Lake or Newton, in Dodge county.

☞ It is now settled that the Whigs have a majority in the house of Representatives of the Ohio Legislature. The Clerk of Hamilton county has come to his milk and given the Whig members certificates.

☞ Remember the meeting of the Mechanics' Association at their Hall on this evening. Seats are free.

☞ Thanks to Jerome & Co's Express, for papers received on yesterday, in advance of the Mail.

[From the Kennebec Journal.]

A Candid Appeal to the Friends of Free Soil.

Continued.

To me it seems very clear, that the position of Gen Taylor on this matter of slavery extension, is very much better than that of Gen Cass. Now I mean to speak fairly on this point. I would not exaggerate or mystify—or attempt to urge any thing that Gen Taylor has said beyond its fair import and extent. I will not insist that you shall admit that his position is all that you can desire, although I think he has been greatly misrepresented, and his real position misstated. Let us see how he does really stand.

1. It is certain that Gen Taylor has never, at any time or place, avowed himself opposed to the Wilmot Proviso. He has never said he would veto it—or that it was unconstitutional. He has never taken ground against it. He has never by word or deed, placed himself in the position that Gen Cass has—the avowed and determined opponent of the free soil doctrines—all admit this. There is no dispute so far, as to Gen Taylor's position. His election, then, could not be claimed, as Cass's will, as a verdict and judgment of the people on the question of free soil—if such issue is made. He comes before the people, to say the least, not as a decided anti proviso man. If he is elected, the question is saved as an open one—undetermined by any action of the people against it. It will come fairly before Congress, where it must be decided. It will have a fair field and a fair fight.

We have seen where the question will be if Gen Cass is elected. On this point the position of Taylor is absolutely preferable—and it is enough to justify a vote for him, in preference to his opponent. For in one case, the question is saved, for discussion and action, in the other it is settled, finally and hopelessly.

2. But can we not fairly go further? General Taylor has avowed himself opposed to the exercise of the veto power, except in cases of a clear violation of the Constitution or hasty and inconsiderate legislation. He avows himself in favor of bringing back the departments of government to their original and legitimate powers and duties. He would have the laws made by the legislature and expounded by the judiciary, and executed by the Executive. His views are given in his letter to Mr Allison in April last. He says in that often quoted letter—

Second—The veto power. The power given by the constitution to the Executive to interpose his veto, is a high conservative power, but in my opinion should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or manifest haste and want of consideration by Congress. Indeed, I have thought that for many years past, the known opinions and wishes of the Executive have exercised undue and injurious influence upon the legislative department of the Government, and for this cause I have thought our system was in danger of undergoing a great change from its true theory—The personal opinions of the individual who may happen to occupy the Executive chair ought not to control the action of Congress upon questions of domestic policy, nor ought his objections to be interposed where questions of constitutional power have been settled by the various departments of Government and acquiesced in by the people.

This extract certainly places him in a position far preferable to that of Gen Cass on the ground of general principles. But may we not [go] still further?

3. Gen Taylor, you will observe, in the above letter says in substance that the veto should not be exercised, except in cases of a clear violation of the Constitution, or of manifest haste and want of consideration. But he does not stop here—he goes on in the next paragraph to limit the veto power still farther. He says in effect that, although there might be a question raised—or even if it was a new and open question, he might hold very strongly—yet till the question of Constitutional power to Congress before the President, had been settled by the various departments of government and acquiesced in by the people, his objections ought not to be interposed. His position, then, is just this—He would exercise the veto power in a case of new impression, or in which the various departments of government had not settled it, and where it appeared to him unconstitutional. But he would not interpose his veto, even if he entertained serious convictions against the constitutionality of a law—if its constitutionality had been settled as he has stated. A bill would not be then unconstitutional, if the principle involved had been before thus settled, and acquiesced in by the people. That decision no longer left it an open question—the law is plain and unequivocal. Now a general principle is as good as a precise and particular expression of views on the single question, if the particular question comes within the general principle and is answered by it.

The particular question is—will General Taylor veto the Wilmot Proviso if Congress should pass it, in an act relating to our newly acquired territory? The answer must be, that, [illegible] whether the principles of the Proviso have been settled by the various departments of the government and acquiesced in by the people. This question is fully and most satisfactorily answered by Mr Van Buren in his recent letters, particularly in the one written to the Utica Convention. He shows most conclusively that the principle of the Proviso has been thus settled and acquiesced in. This proposition is the main one of his letter, and he demonstrates it with his usual talent and strength. It is needless to repeat it here—we have all read it—and nothing need to be added to it. But since that letter was written, and within a few months, the Wilmot Proviso has been passed by both Houses of Congress, and approved by the President, and acquiesced in by the people. It is inserted in the bill for the government of the Oregon territory. If it is constitutional in that bill, it must be in any other. The constitutionality of such a proviso does not depend upon latitude or longitude. If Congress has the power in one case it has in another—to insert such a proviso. Even Mr Calhoun admits this—and hence his opposition to the Oregon bill, with this Proviso.

Take, then, Gen Taylor's avowed principle—which is to govern his action—apply it to the Wilmot proviso, and is it not most manifest that he cannot veto the Wilmot Proviso, if it is presented to him sanctioned by Congress. If there is any flaw in this reasoning, it has escaped my most searching examination. I ask you to examine it for yourselves.

I put, then, again the question—can there be any doubt that in every aspect of the case so far as the question of free soil alone is concerned a most decided preference should be given to Zachary Taylor over Lewis Cass. If so, then is it not our duty to express this preference by voting—(I do not call throwing a ballot for a third candidate voting, for it is not.) I beg my friends—the friends of free soil doctrine—to think seriously and solemnly of their true position, prospects and duties. Is it not our duty to defeat Cass? Can we do anything except by voting for Gen Taylor in every way preferable to Gen Cass? Answer these questions not in your temper and your stubborn will, but to your conscience and your sense of duty. Remember 1844—what brought in Texas—and with it the war and its countless wrongs, miseries and horrors. What gave the power to those who have labored with so much success to extend our territory for the benefit of slavery. What placed James K. Polk in the chair of State, and brought upon us the untold evils of his reign.

Remainder to-morrow.

☞ The "Christian World" says—

"There has never been a time for graver reflection, than now. The revolutions of empires, the approach of a most fatal disease, the increase of crime, the low state of religion,—all seem to unite in one call upon those who profess allegiance to Christ, to look at things as they are, to weigh evidence, and ascertain if something more cannot be done to awaken Christians from their heavy sleep; that they in turn may arouse dead sinners, and bring them to life,—real life."

☞ We learn from the Portland papers that on the 25th inst a fire broke out in a wooden block on Richardson's wharf in that city. There were nearly 400 bales of cotton in the store which were consumed or greatly damaged. The building was nearly consumed. Loss $10,000. Insured.

The ship Andrew Scott suffered by the burning of her spars and rigging.

☞ The first Temperance Society on record was established by the Freemasons of Italy, just a century since.

"On the 28th April, 1748, Pope Clement XII issued his celebrated Bull forbidding the practice of Freemasonry by the members of the Roman Catholic Church. Many of the Masons in Italy continued, however, to meet, but for the purpose of evading the temporal penalties of the Bull, which extended in some instances to the infliction of capital punishment they changed their extenic name, and called themselves Xerophagists. This is a compound of two Greek words signifying "those who live without drinking." This title they selected, then introduced a pledge of Total Abstinence into their by laws and hence the Free masons set little may claim the honor of having taken the initiatory step in that great reformation which has since done so much good to mankind.

The Ohio Election.

All accounts concede the election of Ford, the Whig candidate for Governor, but this result cannot be ascertained with certainty until the legislature meets, and the votes are counted. His majority will not probably exceed three hundred. The Congressional delegation will stand 10 Whigs to 11 Democrats. In the tenth district, however, where Switzer (Dem) is returned by 16 majority, it is the intention of Mr Duncan (Whig) to contest the seat on the ground of illegal votes polled for his competitor. In the Legislature the Senate is tied—The political complexion of the House, will be Whig.

The Graefenberg Company,

OF NEW YORK,

HAVING established a Branch at No. 154 Washington street Boston and appointed Mr Edwin C. Barnes, Secretary thereof, now offers to the people of New England their celebrated series of MEDICINES in the fullest confidence that after a fair trial they will be found superior to and will rapidly supersede all others now in use.

The Company would first call attention to

The Graefenberg Vegetable Pills, for the prevention and cure of the ordinary diseases which affect humanity (especially bilious) these Pills are infinitely superior to any the world has ever before seen. No language can describe their virtues. They are as different from all others as [illegible] from darkness. Every family in New England should try them. Price 25c a box with full directions.

The Graefenberg Sarsaparilla Compound, in which the virtues of the noble and healing Sarsaparilla are highly concentrated. It is warranted to [illegible] two quarts superior to any other made [illegible] and the most powerful aid [illegible] cleanse and purify the system [illegible] one dollar per bottle.

The Graefenberg Children's Panacea, a medicine expressly adapted to the various diseases of children and is the only one of the kind ever before offered to the public. It is composed of vegetables only, and may be used with perfect safety by infants. Price fifty cents per bottle.

The Graefenberg Health Bitters, a preventive of Bilious and other diseases and a restorer of the strength, the appetite and a healthy complexion. Price 25 cents a package.

The Green Mountain Vegetable Ointment, prepared from an old Indian recipe and cure with great rapidity Bruises or fresh cuts, wounds, burns, Scalds &c. Its virtues are too well known to need a more lengthy notice. Price 25c and 50 cents a box.

The Graefenberg Eye Lotion, an article which supplies a want long felt in this part of the country. It is an unfailing remedy for violent inflammation, weakness or foreign substances in the eyes, and for [illegible] and failing of the sight. It is [illegible] and has performed extraordinary cures. Price 25 cts per bottle.

The Graefenberg [illegible] published by the Company for gratuitous distribution may be had on application to any of the numerous Agents.

These Medicines are for sale by their Agents generally throughout New England. Applications for Agencies to be addressed to

New Medicine for Bangor!

Crapo's Liniment,

FOR MAN OR BEAST.

JOSEPH BITHER, Farrier, Bangor, has been appointed Agent for the sale of this excellent Liniment. The virtues of which [illegible] particularly for Horses are many and are as well known to [illegible] experience.

It is offered to the public as a sure cure for the following accidents to which the human frame is liable every day [illegible]—Rheumatism, Sprains, Lameness, [illegible] Swelled Joints, Salt Rheum, Contracted Cords, Scrofula, Chilblains, Lame or the Side and Back or [illegible] and all Cutaneous eruptions of the Skin, Flesh Wounds, Chapped Hands, Diseases of the Bones and Nerves.

This Liniment is an infallible remedy for the cure of the following complaints of Horses—Spavins, Ringbone, Windgall, Gall, Cuts, Corks, Chaps, Cracked Heels, Scratches, Bruises, Sprains in the Fetlock, Whirlbone, Eastern [illegible] and Stiff Joints. It is also a complete preventive [illegible] tracted Heels and Hard Quarters by applying it twice a week. It is as equally beneficial in the complaints of Neat Cattle. No person should be without a bottle of this Liniment in the family, especially the owners of

HORSES OR NEAT CATTLE

Wherever it does not give entire satisfaction it may be returned and the money will be refunded.

The long experience of the Agent in this city in treating diseases to which Horses are liable and his hearty commendation of this medicine will secure for it a favorable [illegible] this city.

CITY OF BANGOR.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Oct 1[illegible] 1848 }

WHEREAS there is reason to believe, that buildings lately used for a slaughter house and another appropriated to the seasoning of lumber recently burned in this city were maliciously set on fire by some evil minded person or persons; and the public good demands that every effort should be made to preserve the safety and property of the citizens from danger and bring to condign punishment the guilty offenders.

Therefore I offer a reward of Forty Dollars to any person who will give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the person or persons who were guilty of the flagrant outrages above mentioned. WM ABBOT Mayor

NOTICE.

The stores [illegible] having been fully established by the judgment of the Circuit Court of the United States [illegible] we hereby give notice that GARDNER CHILSON of Boston, has the exclusive sale of said Stove for Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maine and New Hampshire. All infringements [illegible] will be promptly prosecuted. JOHNSON & COX

Troy N. Y. July 1st 1848

The American

Air-Tight Cooking Stove.

Is this not the best Stove in use why so many attempts to infringe upon it? The suit was brought to sustain the Patent and to stop the infringement, and after a most thorough legal investigation these rights were promptly decided, fully sustaining the Patent.

More than Ten Thousand of these Stoves are now in use. The testimony of this multitude the past year, establishes the fact beyond a doubt that there are more good and useful qualities combined in this Stove than ever was, or probably ever will be found in any other Stove. The fire brick oven top is of great value in equalizing the heat around the oven absorbing the steam causing the bread &c to rise and bake light and quick—and giving bread, puddings &c that flavor of the house brick oven. The kitchen for roasting in front is complete. The summer arrangement for broiling, frying, boiling, heating of irons, &c is admirable. The great economy of fuel and substantial construction and general good quality of this Stove is the cause of its universal admiration.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the Stove, Range and Hot Air Ventilating Furnace Establishment, Nos 51 & 53 Blackstone Street, Boston. GARDNER CHILSON,

SPITTING BLOOD

New York, April 28 1847

Dr Townsend—I recall to you the cure of Sarsaparilla has performed through Peck's family, I may say life I have for years all the blood I could cough I have sometimes raised worse At last I raised large quantities of blood—lost my strength, and was greatly debilitated and reduced and did not expect to live I have used Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla a short time and there has not been a round raising blood since me I am now at home, full over the city I regret my ability to give my full name to you, as I would willingly recommend it to all who are afflicted

RHEUMATISM

This is only one of the more than four thousand cases of Rheumatism that Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla has cured in this city Rheumatic and chronic cases are weekly produced by the extraordinary virtues

James Cummings, Esq one of the assistants in the Lunatic Asylum, Blackwell's Island, has gratified to speak of in the following letter

Blackwell's Island, Sept 14, 1847

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have suffered severely for nine years with the Rheumatism considerable of the time I could not sit, or lie on my left The disease moved from limb to limb, and was terribly swollen I have used four bottles of your Sarsaparilla, and they have done me more than one thousand dollars worth of good. I am as much better—indeed I can call myself cured You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted Yours respectfully,

JAMES CUMMINGS

FITS! FITS! FITS!

Dr Townsend has been using his Sarsaparilla in cases of Fits, of course not a few cases, but one was sufficient to receive the following from an intelligent and respectable Farmer in Westchester county

Fordham, August 13 1847

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have a little girl, seven years of age who has been afflicted with Fits we have tried almost every thing for her, but without success, at last, although we could but have no confidence in your medicine, we concluded we might as well try it, and if it did her no good, it would do her no harm, so we gave her a bottle, and were very much surprised to see her improving rapidly and shortly, for which we feel grateful Yours truly

JOHN BUTLER, Jr

FEMALE MEDICINE

Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla has advantages and speedy cure for Incipient Consumption, Leucorrhœa, Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb, Costiveness, Piles, Leucorrhœa or Whites, obstructed or difficult Menstruation, Incontinence of Urine or involuntary discharge of the same, and for the general prostration of the system—from whatever the result of sufferings or exposure which is produced by irregularities, or abuse of the system, in the generative organs of this sex, including a host of the long train of loathsome and humbling diseases from taking it at once, have come to that dreadful energy under this flattering. It soon stops the downward course, the wasting away of the female frame, which is the great cause of Barrenness—It will not be amiss to state, in explanation of this fact, that hundreds of cases have been reported to us Thousands of cases will be published in the Almanac, to which Females, and their children, are invited to call

Yours truly,

WM ELLSWORTH, of California

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES

This genuine Sarsaparilla has been expressly prepared to relieve the feeble and suffering. No female who has reason to suppose she is going to have that critical age, "The Turn of Life" should neglect to take it, as it is a certain preventative for any of the numerous and horrible diseases to which females are subject at this time of life. This period may be delayed for several years by using the medicine Nor is it less valuable for those who are approaching womanhood as it calculated to assist nature by quickening, the blood and invigorating the system Indeed this is the most invaluable for all the delicate diseases to which women are subject

It brakes the whole system more permanently the natural energies—it removes the impurities of the body, and in fact stimulates to produce sufficient exhaustion—which is the case of most medicines taken for female weakness and disease By using a few bottles of this medicine, many severe and painful suffering can be prevented

GREAT BLESSING TO MOTHERS AND CHILDREN

It is the safest and most effectual medicine for purifying the system, and relieving the sufferings attendant upon childbirth ever discovered It strengthens both the mother and child, and prevents pain and disease, increases and enriches the blood—those who have used it think it indispensable It is highly useful both before and after confinement as it prepares the system to withstand it, and after childbirth it restores the female to perfect health and vigor. Pamphlets can be had gratis, giving full directions, and containing certificates of cures performed, but we can only name a few of the many that might be given.
